

GASPEREAU RIESLING RADLER 2022

Inspired by the ever-popular European Radler—traditionally a beer and citrus sipper—our Riesling Radler is a wine and fruit fusion. This thirst-quenching spritzer is a blend of Nova Scotia piquette, Riesling wine, grapefruit & blood orange.

Nose

Bursting with notes of orange and ruby red, grapefruit Gaspereau Riesling Radler is summery and refreshing. It's the perfect way to quench your thirst after an invigorating bike ride or your favourite adventure!

Palate

Thirst-quenching and refreshing, the Riesling Radler expresses both citrus notes and minerality on the palate. The balance between the wine and citrus notes combined with just a touch of sweetness continues through to a soft and refreshing finish.

Notes

Radler is the German word for cyclist and is also a word used to describe the popular European thirst-quenching blend of beer and citrus. As the story goes, Radlers were ideal drinks for Radlers or cyclists because they were low in alcohol, refreshing and thirst-quenching. Gaspereau Vineyards Riesling Radler has twisted the original concept of a traditional Radler by replacing the beer and hops with Nova Scotia piquette and Riesling wine. No need to worry about gluten or big hoppy notes—no wheat or hops were used to make this spritzer! And no lingering bitterness or acidity—this is simply a refreshing and citrus-forward wine spritzer with a smooth finish.
